BEST OF THE NEW

STAY

Check in and level up at the hottest properties on New England's hospitality scene.

The Atlas Hotel BOSTON

It's not every day that Boston's Allston neighborhood gets a shining new tower—in the form of a hotel, to boot. Within its soaring 16 stories, The Atlas Hotel offers 246 eclectic guest rooms outfitted with mossy green textiles, leather seating, marble accents, and views in every direction. Contemporary art bedecks the lobby, which serves as a funky all-day lounge, while the team from Dorchester's acclaimed Comfort Kitchen is behind the on-site restaurant, Ama at The Atlas, and the glitzy rooftop bar. theatlashotel.com

Camp DeForest LINCOLNVILLE, ME

Hold onto your clipboard because summer camp is back, with all of the phone-free magic of scavenger hunts and bonfires, and all of the comforts that '50s kids only dreamed of when they parked their trunks under bunks. You'll be writing home about warm banana bread, seven hot dog options (including elk dogs), indoor climbs when the weather's uncooperative, and nights at the tiki bar. "Cabins" are available year-round, but why kick the can until fall or winter? campdeforest.com

The Lake Estate on Winnisquam TILTON, NH

Though this posh 114-room property was built in 2025, its polished woods and dormered roofline reflect the timeless appeal of an Adirondack-style 19th-century resort. Lakes Region attractions are close at hand, but you won't lack for on-site diversions. Book an apple-and-wildflower-scented body scrub, kayak on the rippling lake, or take a dip in the infinity pool. Celebrated chef Chris Vaud ensures that even small plates, like short rib arancini, are artfully composed using local ingredients. thelakeestatenh.com
